Academic Opportunities:
Global Studies Germany offers 3 credit hours (ENGR 4060) with lecture topics taught by OSU College of Engineering, Architecture and Technology faculty, including preliminary research, field trips to cultural sites, and technology tours of leading companies. Students will also have the opportunity to spend time with students studying in Germany. Through readings, site visits, on-site presentations, and social engagement, students will come to understand the complex nature of cultural diversity. Students will be responsible for a written report as well as journaling/blogging to document their course experience.

Eligibility:
Open to all students enrolled at OSU. Program size is limited to 20 students with an enforced minimum GPA of 2.25. Please check with your advisor to determine if credits will count toward degree requirements.

Dates:
May 15 – 29, 2019. Participants will travel to Stuttgart, Munich, and Berlin with day trips to Neuschwanstein Castle, Dresden, Potsdam, and Dachau.

Airfare:
Group airfare may be available if enough students are interested or students may purchase airfare directly. Do not purchase airfare until formally admitted to the course in the spring and an informational session is held.

Financial Aid:
CEAT Study Abroad Scholarship (Due February 1, 2019) and OSU Provost Scholarship (Due October 15, 2018 early bird and February 1, 2019 final deadline – registration at http://abroad.okstate.edu required). FAFSA benefits may be used in the summer session if enrolled in 6 hours minimum. http://ceatstudyabroad.okstate.edu/scholarships

Program cost:
$3000 includes 3 credit hours of tuition, housing, local transportation, field trips, admission fees, international health insurance, and some group meals.

Not included:
Airfare, personal spending money, meals, passports, and any required VISAs or immunizations.

Application procedures:
Registration is required at http://abroad.okstate.edu (Due March 1, 2019). Once accepted into the program, students should enroll in the course for the summer session in Banner. You must be registered to be eligible for a Provost Scholarship.
